

ABC World News

California Burning

Discovery

Border tension

Contractor audit

ABC World News

California Burning

And we start as we always do with the headlines and today of course the _____ (1) story is these fires burning out in Southern California. Earlier today President Bush declared a federal _____ (2) in that part of the country where at least a dozen wild fires continue to _____ (3). Thousands of acres have been charred and hundreds of _____ (4) destroyed. In San Diego County alone where three thousand people have been _____ (5) many of them are now at the Qualcomm Stadium which has become a temporary _____ (6). Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger has ordered fifteen _____ (7) Californian national guardsmen to support the fire fighting efforts and the Pentagon has dispatched six especially equipped military _____ (8) to that area.

Discovery

Despite cloudy skies the space _____ (9) Discovery blasted off right on schedule from Cape Canaveral, Florida today.

Boost of ignition and lift off of Discovery. The seven-member _____ (10) is embarking on a two-week long _____ (11) to construct and attach a new compartment to the international space station.

Border tension

Turkish military forces continue to gather on the _____ (12) with Iraq as the Turkish foreign minister rejected a proposed _____ (13) from Kurdish separatists in Northern Iraq, while the _____ (14) efforts continue with officials in Baghdad, Prime Minister Nouri al-Maliki announced that the Iraqi government will be closing down the offices of the militant Kurdistan Workers Party and stopping them from operating in Iraq.

Contractor audit

According to an US Government _____ (15), a $120 billion state department contract with a security contractor rather security contract with DynCorp in Iraq was so poorly managed that auditors cannot _____ (16) where the money was spent. DynCorp was awarded the contract to _____ (17) Iraqi police back in 2004 and for much more of all those stories you can watch the broadcast edition of world news.

ABC World News

California Burning

And we start as we always do with the headlines and today of course the leading story is these fires burning out in Southern California. Earlier today President Bush declared a federal emergency in that part of the country where at least a dozen wild fires continue to rage. Thousands of acres have been charred and hundreds of homes destroyed. In San Diego County alone where three thousand people have been evacuated many of them are now at the Qualcomm Stadium which has become a temporary shelter. Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger has ordered fifteen hundred Californian national guardsmen to support the fire fighting efforts and the Pentagon has dispatched six especially equipped military aircraft to that area.

Discovery

Despite cloudy skies the space shuttle Discovery blasted off right on schedule from Cape Canaveral, Florida today.

Boost of ignition and lift off of Discovery. The seven- member crew is embarking on a two-week long mission to construct and attach a new compartment to the international space station.

Border tension

Turkish military forces continue to gather on the border with Iraq as the Turkish foreign minister rejected a proposed ceasefire from Kurdish separatists in Northern Iraq, while the diplomatic efforts continue with officials in Bagdad, Prime Minister Nouri al-Maliki announced that the Iraqi government will be closing down the offices of the militant Kurdistan Workers Party and stopping them from operating in Iraq.

Contractor audit

According to an US Government report, a $120 billion state department contract with a security contractor, rather security contract with DynCorp in Iraq was so poorly managed that auditors cannot trace where the money was spent. DynCorp was awarded the contract to train Iraqi police back in 2004 and for much more of all those stories you can watch the broadcast edition of world news.